

Family Concert For Foreign Students and Families

Let's enjoy picture books and music!

Program

"The Story of Babar" composed by Poulenc Ranka, The Girl Who came to Japan It's OK to be Different

Piano : Yayoi Yamamoto

Story tellers: Mai Ayano, Evica Lewis Sillah

On Dec. 14, International students from TUFS will also introduce and tell stories from their own country.

Organizer: NPO Fuchu JSL Japanese Support Association

Supported by : Fuchu City, Fuchu City Board of Education, Fuchu City Council of Social Welfare, Tokyo Metropolitan Tsunagari Creation Foundation, Faculty of Agriculture, Tokyo University of Agriculture and Technology, International Education Support Office Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

With cooperation from : Fuchu City Multicultural Center DIVE, Certified NPO Multicultural Center Tokyo, ROWJ Foreign Women Support Association

① Date: Saturday, December 7, 2024

Open : 13:30 Start : 14:00

Venue : Auditorium of Faculty of Agriculture,
Main Building, Fuchu campus, Tokyo
University of Agriculture and Technology

Address : 3-5-8 Saiwai-cho Fuchu-shi

② Date: Saturday, December 14, 2024

Open : 13:30 Start : 14:00

Venue : Tokyo University of Foreign Studies ·
Student Lounge Room106, Japanese
Language Center for International Students

Address : 3-11-1 Asahi-cho Fuchu-shi

Free Admission

For : All international children and their families.
Japanese language teachers and supporters.

Register Here : npo.fuchujsl@gmail.com

Please register by email with the information below

(1) Full name (2) Number of people attending (3) Preferred date ① or ②

Email : npo.fuchujsl@gmail.com

The registration for both events will be on a first-come, first-served basis.

Yayoi Yamamoto

Mai Ayano

Evica Lewis Sillah